Introduction to the 2013 Voters' Pamphlet

Welcome! This pamphlet contains information about two initiatives to the Legislature and five tax advisory votes appearing on your ballot. You will also find several pages designed to assist you with voting and the election process.

This election largely features local races and measures. Voters will determine the outcome of local measures and elect officials to serve on city councils, school boards, fire and port commissions. These are elections that have a significant impact on our local communities and ultimately shape our state.

The cover of this pamphlet highlights our latest exhibit at the State Capitol celebrating Washington innovators who dared to dream big. Grand Coulee to Grunge: eight stories that changed the world, recounts feats in agriculture, business, science, and technology that put the Evergreen State on the world stage.

As Washington expanded in the 1900s, so did our impact on the world. From cities that were built with Northwest timber to the development of a weapon that would end a world war, our state helped shape the 20th century.

Today, people around the world celebrate Washington lives and legacies. From a Starbucks store in Malaysia to a 747 airplane in Antarctica, Washington is everywhere. The fruits of our labor appear on dinner tables across the world and the music of Hendrix and Nirvana is heard on radio stations from Sydney to Stockholm.

Washington's story continues, and as a voter you can determine what happens next by participating in the November 5 General Election. Your vote will help choose the leaders in your community and may shape the next eight stories that will change the world.

Explanatory Statement

Written by the Office of the Attorney General

The Law as it Presently Exists

Under current law, anyone wishing to propose an initiative measure for a statewide vote of the people can file it with the Secretary of State starting ten months before the election at which the voters will consider the measure. Initiative measures petitioning the legislature to enact a proposed measure can be filed with the Secretary of State starting ten months before the legislature's next regular session. After the Secretary of State accepts the initial filing of the measure, initiative supporters may begin collecting petition signatures.

To have an initiative submitted for a statewide vote of the people or to the legislature, the initiative sponsor must submit petitions to the Secretary of State containing the number of valid signatures required by the Washington State Constitution. Washington law provides that petitions must state the initiative measure in full and contain a place for each petitioner to sign and print their name and the address at which they are registered to vote. Petitions must contain a statement affirming that each person signing does so personally as a Washington voter, is providing correct information, has signed only once, and does so truthfully. The law also requires petitions to contain the signature of the petition circulator, swearing or acknowledging that to the best of his or her knowledge, voters signed the petition freely and without compensation, that to the best of his or her knowledge the information provided by the signors is true and correct, and acknowledging that forging a signature or providing compensation to induce people to sign is illegal. The Secretary of State must reject a signed initiative petition if it does not have the required information, has insufficient signatures, or is filed too late.

In addition to statewide initiatives to the people and initiatives to the legislature, Washington law allows some types of local governments to allow for the filing of local initiatives and to set the requirements for submitting such initiatives.

Under current law, those gathering signatures for petitions and those signing petitions receive the same protection from harassment or assault as anyone else, but no further protection. Washington law provides that a person is guilty of harassment if they threaten to: cause bodily injury to another person, damage another person's property, restrain any person, or do any other act intended to substantially harm the threatened person's physical or mental health or safety. Washington's statutes and common law also prohibit assaulting another person with unlawful force and the intent to inflict bodily harm, regardless of whether bodily harm occurs. Assault also includes an act, done with unlawful force, with the intent of causing another person to fear bodily injury, if the act actually does create reasonable apprehension and imminent fear of bodily injury. The crime of stalking is committed if a person intentionally and repeatedly harasses or repeatedly follows a person with intent to frighten, intimidate, or harass the person, or with knowledge that the person is afraid, intimidated, or harassed. A person is guilty of disorderly conduct if the person uses abusive language and thereby creates a risk of assault, intentionally disrupts any lawful assembly, or obstructs vehicular or pedestrian traffic without lawful authority.

The Effect of the Proposed Measure, if Approved

This measure would increase the time for gathering petition signatures by up to six months. Proposed initiative measures for a statewide vote of the people could be filed with the Secretary of State starting sixteen months before the election at which the voters would consider the measure. Proposed initiative measures petitioning the legislature to enact a measure could be filed starting sixteen months prior to the legislature's next regular session at which the measure would be considered.

Any statewide initiative to the people or local initiative that received the required number of petition signatures in the required timeframe would have to be submitted to a vote of the people at the next election. Local government officials would be required to submit the initiative to a vote regardless of the subject matter of the initiative measure.

The measure would provide that interfering with signature gathering for a state or local initiative or referendum is illegal. Interfering with a person trying to sign a petition, stalking a person who signs a petition, or stalking or retaliating against a person who gathers petition signatures would constitute the misdemeanor of disorderly conduct. Such conduct would be subject to the civil anti-harassment procedures available under RCW 10.14, and civil penalties. Interfering with petition signing and signature gathering would be defined to include, but not limited to, pushing, shoving, touching, spitting, throwing objects, yelling, screaming, being verbally abusive, or other tumultuous conduct, blocking or intimidating, or maintaining an intimidating presence within twenty-five feet of a petition signer or signature gatherer. Initiative or referendum petition signing and signature gathering would be legally protected on public sidewalks and walkways and all sidewalks and walkways that carry pedestrians, including those in front of entrances and exits to stores, and inside or outside public buildings.

Fiscal Impact Statement

Written by the Office of Financial Management
For more information visit www.ofm.wa.gov/ballot

Initiative 517 (I-517) makes changes to the state and local government initiative process. I-517 also provides that interfering with signature gathering for state or local initiatives or referenda is illegal. I-517 has no revenue, expenditure or cost impact on state government. There is no revenue impact on local governments from I-517. However, the expenditure and cost impacts to local governments are indeterminate.

General Assumptions

- The fiscal estimates contained in this fiscal impact statement are based, in part, on assumptions about the scope and legal effect of the ballot measure should it be enacted by the voters. Such assumptions are not intended to represent legal interpretation or conclusions of law.
- I-517 is effective Dec. 5, 2013.

- The term “next election” is assumed to mean the next general election as provided in RCW 29A.04.043.
- No state or local government revenue impact is assumed if the initiative measure is approved.

State Expenditure and Cost Assumptions

I-517 would increase the time for gathering initiative petition signatures by up to six months. The Secretary of State will need to reprogram the online filing system to require sponsors to indicate the year for which each initiative filing applies. No state expenditure or costs would be required for this task.

Local Expenditure and Cost Assumptions

The initiative power is not available to all local governments. Only counties that have adopted a charter form of government have the power of the initiative. The initiative power is also available only to first-class cities, commission cities and code cities (code cities must formally adopt these powers). Based on research by the Municipal Research and Service Center of Washington, an estimated six counties and 59 cities have initiative power.

If I-517 is approved by the voters, counties and cities with initiative power would be required to submit to a vote any initiative, regardless of its subject matter, that obtains the required number of valid voter signatures within the required timeframe. Counties and cities are required to pay for their proportionate share of costs in a general election. The cost to a county or city to certify a local initiative and place it on the ballot in a general election varies significantly. Costs vary by jurisdiction and election based on the number of registered voters in the jurisdiction, the number of measures and offices on the ballot and the methodology used by the county to apportion costs. Based on information provided by counties and cities, an average cost to verify an initiative signature is estimated at $0.80 per signature and an average general election cost is estimated at $1 per registered voter. However, there are no data to estimate the quantity or location of additional initiatives that may qualify for local elections if I-517 is approved, and therefore, the expenditure and cost impact on counties and cities is indeterminate.

Local governments may experience increased expenditures and costs related to the provision in I-517 that interfering with signature gathering for state or local initiatives or referenda is illegal. There are no data to estimate the annual number of law enforcement actions that may occur from this portion of the initiative, and therefore, the fiscal impact on counties and cities is indeterminate.

Argument For Initiative Measure 517

Opponents of Initiatives too often use Bullying to Prevent Citizens from Signing Initiatives They Support

Voters who want to sign a petition – liberal or conservative – deserve protection from bullying and retaliation. I-517 establishes penalties to discourage such bad behavior. Peaceful discussion is legal under I-517; bullying is not. Pictures, videos, and sworn affidavits here:

www.YesOn517.com/Safety

I-517 “Protect Your Right To Vote On Initiatives” is about Letting the People Vote on ...

... qualified initiatives. In recent years, 16+ citizen-sponsored initiatives – liberal and conservative – were blocked from a public vote by powerful special interests even though local citizens followed all the rules. I-517 establishes a new state law that prevents interference by special interests, guaranteeing the people’s right to vote. If the initiative qualifies, let the voters decide.

I-517 Puts the Citizen Back in the Citizen Initiative. Increasingly, Initiatives Sponsored by Big Business, ...

... Big Labor, and the Rich are the only ones qualifying for the ballot. Why? Since 1912, the number of signatures has skyrocketed while the timeframe for collecting signatures has stayed exactly the same. Almost all other initiative states allow a year or more to collect signatures; I-517 matches the national average. More time means more grassroots groups can compete.

I-517 Makes Citizen Participation Safer and Guarantees the People’s Right to Vote on Initiatives

Without I-517, entrenched politicians and special interests will continue bullying citizens from expressing their free speech rights and blocking voters from exercising their initiative rights. Please vote yes. Thank you.

Rebuttal of Argument Against

Even our opponents agree I-517 protects free speech and encourages more grassroots participation by making the initiative process more affordable. Regarding petitioning, I-517 simply reinforces what the courts have already said: petitioning at places open to the public is guaranteed under the First Amendment. Without I-517, initiative opponents will continue bullying, preventing citizens from expressing themselves and voting on issues they care about. Protect your right to speak out and vote on initiatives – vote yes!

Argument Against Initiative Measure 517

I-517 violates Washingtonians’ property rights

Courts have ruled that petitioners must respect private property rights when collecting signatures, but I-517 prevents property owners from having control over signature gathering on their property, infringing upon their constitutionally-guaranteed property rights. Under I-517, law enforcement would be directed to vigorously protect petitioners collecting within a twenty-five foot zone. Business owners would not be able to stop aggressive petitioners from blocking and harassing customers who are trying to enter or exit a store. Instead, their property rights would be disregarded.

I-517 benefits Tim Eyman

Sponsor Tim Eyman is a full-time initiative proponent who makes money off the measures he promotes. Under I-517, it would be easier and cheaper for Eyman to qualify future initiatives to the ballot, meaning he could double his output and increase his profits.

I-517 would make petitioning more intrusive

I-517 allows out of state petitioners to be active in Washington year-round – both inside and outside public buildings. Petitioners could go inside sports stadiums like Safeco Field or Comcast Arena, public libraries, and even public school events like high school football games to ask Washingtonians to sign stacks of petitions.

I-517 would increase elections costs

A provision tucked away in I-517 forces cities and counties to put local initiatives on the ballot even if they’re illegal or invalid, wasting taxpayer dollars on unnecessary elections.

Join former Secretaries of State Ralph Munro and Sam Reed in voting no on I-517.

Rebuttal of Argument For

Former Secretary of State Sam Reed said that most complaints received in his office were from citizens and businesses who were being harassed by signature gatherers and that laws already exist to protect signature gatherers’ safety. Local governments should not be forced into costly legal battles when an initiative is found to be unconstitutional. Former Supreme Court Justice Phil Talmadge says I-517 is unconstitutional as it takes away private property rights of others. Vote No.

Initiative Measure No.

concerns labeling of genetically-engineered foods.

This measure would require most raw agricultural commodities, processed foods, and seeds and seed stocks, if produced using genetic engineering, as defined, to be labeled as genetically engineered when offered for retail sale.

Should this measure be enacted into law?

Yes

No

The Secretary of State is not responsible for the content of statements or arguments (WAC 434-381-180).

Explanatory Statement

Written by the Office of the Attorney General

The Law as it Presently Exists

In general, federal law regulates the safety and quality of food shipped between states, while Washington law regulates the safety and quality of food produced and sold within the state. Both federal and state law identify and regulate foods that are “misbranded” or “adulterated,” but neither state nor federal law requires any specific labeling of foods produced using genetic engineering.

Under Washington law, the director of the state Department of Agriculture is authorized to condemn, seize, and destroy misbranded or adulterated foods and food items. Washington law defines food and food products as “misbranded” where labeling or packaging is false or misleading, and “adulterated” if they contain some added substance that is poisonous or harmful to health, or if they are contaminated, diseased, putrid, or otherwise unfit as food or injurious to health. State law imposes many specific labeling and packaging requirements and prohibitions for food and food products, but it does not require any specific labeling of genetically engineered foods. No provision of state law treats genetically engineered food as adulterated.

Washington law also authorizes the director of the state Department of Agriculture to stop the sale of mislabeled agricultural seeds, flower seeds, and vegetable seeds sold in Washington, and to condemn and seize the seeds if necessary. Seeds are considered to be misbranded if they are not accurately labeled in compliance with state law, but existing state law does not require that genetically engineered seeds be labeled as genetically engineered.

The Effect of the Proposed Measure, if Approved

The measure would impose labeling requirements on genetically engineered foods and seeds offered for retail sale in Washington. The measure defines “genetically engineered” to mean changes to genetic material produced through techniques that directly insert DNA or RNA into organisms or that use cell fusion techniques to overcome natural barriers to cell multiplication or recombination.

Beginning July 1, 2015, any food produced using “genetic engineering” that is not labeled as required in the measure would be considered “misbranded.” The measure would require genetically engineered raw agricultural commodities to be labeled conspicuously with the words “genetically engineered,” and genetically engineered packaged processed foods would have to be labeled conspicuously with the words “partially produced with genetic engineering” or “may be partially produced with genetic engineering.” The measure would exempt the following foods from the labeling requirements: alcoholic beverages; certified organic foods; foods not produced using genetic engineering, as certified by an approved independent organization; foods served in restaurants or in food service establishments; “medical food”; and foods consisting of or derived from animals that have themselves not been genetically engineered, regardless of whether the animal has been fed any genetically engineered food; and processed foods produced using genetically engineered processing aids or enzymes. Processed foods containing small amounts of genetically engineered materials would be exempt until July 1, 2019.

Beginning July 1, 2015, the measure also would require that genetically engineered seeds and seed stock be labeled conspicuously with the words “genetically engineered” or “produced with genetic engineering.”

The measure provides that its requirements are to be implemented and enforced by the state Department of Health, instead of the state Department of Agriculture, and would authorize the Department of Health to assess a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars per day for each violation. The Department of Health, acting through the Attorney General, could bring an action in superior court to enjoin a person violating the measure. Separately, after giving sixty days notice, any private person could bring an action in superior court to enjoin a person violating the measure, and potentially recover costs and attorney fees for the action.

Fiscal Impact Statement

Written by the Office of Financial Management
For more information visit www.ofm.wa.gov/ballot

The initiative authorizes the Washington State Department of Health to adopt rules necessary to implement the initiative. Beginning July 1, 2015, the initiative allows the Department of Health, through the Attorney General, to bring an action to enjoin violations of the initiative's requirement that most raw agricultural commodities, processed foods, seeds and seed stocks, if produced using genetic engineering, be labeled as genetically engineered when offered for retail sale. Known state agency implementation costs are estimated at $3,368,000 over six fiscal years. State and local revenue and costs from enforcement activities are indeterminate.

General Assumptions

- The fiscal estimates contained in this fiscal impact statement are based, in part, on assumptions about the scope and legal effect of the ballot measure should it be enacted by the voters. Such assumptions are not intended to represent legal interpretation or conclusions of law.
- The initiative is effective Dec. 5, 2013. However, the initiative's labeling requirements begin July 1, 2015.
- Estimates are described using the state's fiscal year (FY) of July 1 through June 30.

State Revenue Assumptions

The initiative would allow the Department of Health (DOH) to assess a civil penalty against any person violating the requirements of the initiative in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per day. Additional state revenue could be generated from filing fees for civil actions filed in county superior courts to enforce the initiative's requirements. As provided in RCW 36.18.025, 46 percent of county superior court filing fees must be remitted to the State Treasurer for deposit in the state general fund and 54 percent of fees remain with the county. There are no data to estimate the annual number of civil actions or civil penalties that may be generated. Therefore, the state revenue impact from the initiative is indeterminate.

State Expenditure and Cost Assumptions

DOH program development will include expenditures for rule making, inspection and compliance, as well as education and technical assistance to the food industry. The cost of these expenditures over six fiscal years is estimated at $2,168,000. Beginning July 1, 2015, DOH will contract with a private laboratory for product sampling and testing as required in the initiative. Total cost of this expenditure over six fiscal years is estimated at $1,200,000. Table 1.1 shows DOH estimated costs by fiscal year.

Local Revenue, Expenditure and Cost Assumptions

Counties may experience increased revenue, expenditures and costs from civil actions filed in county superior courts to enforce the initiative's requirements. There are no data to estimate the annual number of civil actions that may occur. Therefore, the fiscal impact on counties from the initiative is indeterminate.

Argument For Initiative Measure 522

Right to Know

In America, we have a right to know important information about the food we eat and feed our families – such as sugar and sodium levels, whether flavors are natural or artificial, the country of origin, and if fish are wild or farm-raised.

We also should have a right to choose whether we want to buy and eat genetically engineered food. Labels matter. They ensure transparency and preserve the freedom to make our own decisions about the food we eat. I-522 is a step in the right direction.

U.S. companies already label genetically engineered foods for markets in the 64 countries that require labeling, including some of Washington's largest trading partners. Genetically engineered crops, such as wheat, have contaminated conventional crops in the Northwest. Some countries suspended imports from our farmers, putting our economy at risk. Separation and labeling, from the seed level up through the supply chain, helps protect exports to countries that require labeling.

Broad Support

I-522 was brought to the ballot by more than 350,000 citizens and draws strong support from farmers, fishing families, health care professionals, business owners, Republicans, Democrats, and Independents across our state.

Labels Let You Decide

Voting Yes on I-522 is an important step for more information about your food. You should have the freedom to decide what to eat. Your food decisions should be up to you – not corporations, the government, or special interests. Labels let you decide. Vote for the right to know what's in your food.

Rebuttal of Argument Against

Powerful chemical corporations that genetically engineer food oppose labeling because they care about their profits, not our right to know. The truth: labels ensure transparency. The government has conducted no independent safety tests and the Washington State Nurses Association endorses labeling to trace health issues. Labeling is easy and it gives us the freedom to decide what to buy. Foods are relabeled frequently. Adding words to a label doesn't increase costs. Trust yourself to decide.

Argument Against Initiative Measure 522

I-522 mandates costly, misleading food labeling regulations in Washington that don't exist in any other state.

I-522 makes no sense.

For decades, agricultural biotechnology has helped improve food crops so they resist disease, require fewer pesticides or are more nutritious. Today, 70-80% of grocery products include ingredients from these foods, and they're deemed safe by the FDA and major scientific and medical organizations. Yet I-522 would require thousands of these products to have special, new labels – only for Washington – while giving special exemptions to thousands of others, even when they contain "genetically engineered" (GE) ingredients.

I-522 requires fruits, vegetables and grain-based products to be labeled, but exempts meat and dairy products from animals fed GE grains. It mandates special labels and signs in supermarkets, but exempts restaurants from providing information about GE ingredients in their foods. Foods from foreign countries would be exempt if manufacturers simply claim they're exempt. So I-522 wouldn't even give consumers a reliable way of knowing which foods contain GE ingredients.

Higher taxpayer costs, more state bureaucracy and lawsuits.

I-522 would require the state to monitor labels on thousands of products in thousands of stores – costing taxpayers millions. It would allow trial lawyers to sue farmers, food producers and grocers over the wording on food labels – encouraging shakedown lawsuits. And, studies show I-522's Washington-only labeling requirements would hurt local farmers and increase an average family's food costs by hundreds of dollars per year.

Washington scientists, farmers and food producers urge no on 522.

Rebuttal of Argument For

Existing food labels already give consumers the option to choose foods without GE ingredients by choosing products labeled "certified organic." I-522's complicated, poorly written regulations would put Washington farmers and food producers at a competitive disadvantage, not protect them. I-522 would not protect our export markets or provide consumers with reliable information about our food. But it would increase grocery prices for Washington families and cost taxpayers millions. Vote no on this costly, unnecessary measure.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1846

The legislature extended, without a vote of the people, the insurance premium tax to some insurance for pediatric oral services, costing an amount that cannot currently be estimated, for government spending.

This tax increase should be:

- Repealed
- Maintained

Ten-Year Cost Projection

Provided by the Office of Financial Management

Section 3(6)(c) of this bill removes the exemption for pediatric oral services offered as essential health benefits outside the Washington Health Benefit Exchange. Since these services have previously been exempted, this will result in additional revenue for the insurance premium tax. However, the amount of taxable activity resulting from pediatric oral health care services benefits cannot be estimated. Consequently, the amount of additional revenue attributed to pediatric oral services offered as essential health benefits outside the Health Benefit Exchange is indeterminate.

Welcome to Skagit County's 2013 Voters' Pamphlet

Welcome to Skagit County's section of the 2013 Voters' Pamphlet. In the following pages you will find candidate submissions, ballot box drop locations, and ballot voting instructions. It is our hope that the information will assist you in making your voting decisions.

Odd year elections are largely non-partisan Elections, to select the local leaders of our cities, towns and special districts. These are the decision makers affecting the future, security, and safety of our daily lives. Candidates vie for 4-year terms for positions such as Mayor, City Council, School Board, Port of Anacortes, and Park and Recreation District Board, and 6-year terms in Hospital, Fire, Port of Skagit, Cemetery, Sewer, and Water Districts.

Ballot Drop Boxes in Skagit County are convenient and popular with the highest usage rate in Washington State, receiving 69% of the ballots cast in the 2012 Presidential Election.

Our goal is to provide a secure, accurate, efficient, and economical election process and to encourage citizens to exercise their freedom to influence the future of our communities and our country.

Visit our web site, www.skagitcounty.net/elections to learn about the current election, elections history including your own election history (what elections you participated in, etc.), who the Federal, State, County and Local elected leaders are that represent you, along with a host of other election information. On our site you will find the online version of this Voters' Pamphlet and links to:

- o The Washington Secretary of State's web site,
- o Skagit County ballot drop box locations,
- o On-line Voter Registration.

Please call us at 360-336-9305, email us at sselections@co.skagit.wa.us, or drop by our Election Office with questions, concerns, or requests regarding replacement ballots, address changes, etc. We are located at 700 South Second Street, Room 201 in downtown Mount Vernon, and are eager to help.

Your vote counts – you do make the difference – our freedom is in elections!

Thank you,
Jeanne Youngquist - Skagit County Auditor

If you make a mistake

Draw a line through the entire measure response or candidate's name.

Then you may make another choice.

Paul Harris Award for Community Service (Rotary) (1999 and 2006) (52)

Statement

I have a proven record of business and community leadership, and I know how to make tough decisions. As the owner of Gere-a-Deli for the past 32 years, I have successfully steered my business through hard economic times in an industry with a high failure rate. On the hospital commission, I helped oversee the hospital's budget of $80 million—two times the size of the City's budget—and developed policies for the largest employer in Anacortes. I understand the difficulties facing business owners.

My passion is community service, and I have made a serious commitment to making Anacortes a better place. While managing my business, I simultaneously served on several volunteer boards, which has given me deep knowledge of the community and taught me the power of collaboration. I value and will actively seek broad citizen participation.

To increase the City's revenues, we must adapt to a new, global economy and the opportunities afforded by the internet. I will develop an aggressive marketing plan to attract a diverse mix of appropriately-sized businesses with good-paying jobs that fit our community and don't harm our environment.

Times have changed; we need new leadership. I'd be honored to have your vote.

Statement

I am very proud of Anacortes and all that our city has accomplished in 20 years with the important participation of our citizens.

I am the only candidate running with extensive city management experience. This is vitally important since all the responsibilities for administration of Anacortes rest with the mayor.

In total I have 32 years of public-sector experience that has benefited our community, including 20 as mayor, 6 as a councilmember, 3 on the Board of Adjustment and 3 as a reserve police officer. I have greatly enjoyed this service.

In the private sector before becoming mayor I gained many years' experience working in construction and construction management, which has provided me with the skills to manage large public works projects and gave me the skills to manage an organization and the people it employs.

I have provided 20 years of fiscally prudent management and balanced budgets with favorable audits by the state auditor. I have been able to guide the City of Anacortes through the worst recession in 80 years without furloughs, layoffs or cuts in service levels to the community, and in many cases we were able to enhance service and add substantially to our fund reserves.

I’m practical, logical, competent and compassionate. I care deeply about the city our family calls home. I’ve raised my kids and started a successful family business in Anacortes. Assignments: including combat tours, and recent duty at NAS Whidbey, where as “second-in-command,” was responsible for efficient operation of the base, which employs 10,000 and was selected as the best air station in the country during all my 3 years. Additionally, directed base Search and Rescue assets, and relationships I established with Skagit and Whatcom emergency services, we were able to save ten lives in the local area. Statement

Anacortes is a wonderful city but there are issues we must address. Primarily there is a need for strong leadership that encourages and invites public participation and is transparent in its dealings. From this foundation, the other challenges will be resolved: what is the best use of our water front, how do we attract businesses that are compatible with our environment, how do we collaborate with our neighbor cities to address regional transportation and social services issues; and what is the best utilization of our water resources.

I will work to update our Comprehensive Plan to make our city more attractive to business while protecting the character and charm of our neighborhoods. I will work hard to improve employment prospects, particularly for our young families, along with affordable housing and shopping where they can find essential goods and services. I want people to be able to both live and work in our city

My background as a state legislator, public and private educator, business owner, community volunteer and parent has given me the experience and perspective to work effectively with the community and city government to prepare our city for an exciting future.

I love Burlington, which is why my wife, Jana, and I chose to raise our family here. My family believes in living within our means, managing debt, and saving for the future. We also believe in community service. I currently serve as Chairman of the Burlington Public Library Board of Trustees. I had the pleasure of participating in the planning, building, and beautification of the new library. As a proud father of three wonderful children, I participate in their school and sports activities.

Promoting, supporting, and encouraging business is as significant as the needs of our residents. A strong and thriving community is good for everyone. Infrastructure, parks, and public services are a vital part of our cohesiveness. I believe in stewardship, respect, and pride in our community.

I welcome the community at large to participate with me in their city government. I also encourage conversations whether it be in the grocery store, on the soccer fields, or at city hall. My philosophy of personal responsibility and accountability will guide my decisions for a growing, safe, and attractive city that cherishes small town values and traditions. It would be my honor to serve on city council.

Jason Miller

Elected Experience

Jason Miller has represented Town of Concrete as a member of the Town Council since 2007, winning re-election in 2009.

Other Professional Experience

With his background in publishing, marketing, advertising, and public relations, Miller owns and operates Concrete Herald, and is a freelance writer and editor for topics from home and garden to development trends.

Education

Originally from Lynden, Wash., Miller holds a B.A. from Bethel University in St. Paul, Minn., and an M.F.A. in Creative Writing from Eastern Washington University.

Community Service

Miller chairs Imagine Concrete Foundation, a 501(c)(3) corporation, and Concrete Parks Committee. He is a co-manager for Concrete's community garden.

Statement

Since its cement industry folded in the late 1960s, Concrete has toggled between struggle and stagnation. Today it is a low-income community with dwindling memories of its vitality.

To repair and revitalize this distressed town, four elements must be addressed: Civic, Residential, Employment, and Commercial. With his solid working knowledge of development and economic trends, plus connections with some of the brightest minds in the U.S., Jason Miller is the best choice to lead Concrete's journey back to the vibrancy it enjoyed decades ago, while retaining its small-town character.

After moving to Concrete in 2005, Miller engaged in the community immediately by joining the Chamber of Commerce, then serving on the Planning Commission, the Parks Committee, and the Town Council. In 2009 he co-founded a citizen-driven group called Imagine Concrete; its first townwide workshop led to Concrete's first community garden, a playground fencing project, and a grassroots effort to rescue a relic from the town's industrial past: the Superior Portland Cement Administration Building.

Concrete needs more than a caretaker; it needs a leader who will listen to its citizens, then work to rejuvenate the town and transform it into a model of resilience and beauty. Jason Miller is that leader.

From 2006 until I was appointed to the Town Council in January 2013, I served on and chaired the Town's Planning Commission.

On the Planning Commission I always strived to understand the viewpoints of others and to help reach resolutions that were beneficial to everyone.

Statement

Growing up in a large working class family we all had to keep track of each other to prosper, always keeping an eye out for one another making sure no one was left out. We all had a daily task, some more difficult than others, but all important. My father went to work in the fields while my mother made sure we got on the school bus, and then turned her attention towards our home

Statement

I will continue working to make Mount Vernon a safe, attractive and well managed city. City government's major responsibility is to provide an efficient and dependable public infrastructure. I will continue to pursue the efficient and effective use of taxpayer resources, fiscal policy that reflects a commitment to limited taxation, keeping as much money as possible in the pockets of taxpaying citizens. Open and transparent government is a must and I support the concept without reservation. I do not support expanding our city into any farm land. Comprehensive flood protection for the whole city is extremely important. It requires that Mount Vernon develop relationships not only with all areas impacted by the Skagit River, but with state and federal government officials, because they are the key for long-term funding. I will continue to be active in pursuit of that goal. I will continue to promote collaboration with other jurisdictions to hold down the cost of services and will continue to communicate with citizens. I support the business community, encourage new business ventures and support our Historic Downtown. I believe in the common sense approach and community involvement. I will continue to listen well, have courage and speak the truth.

Additional areas of concern for me are the proposed increased rail traffic and the impact it will have on our community economically and from a public safety standpoint. As your council member I will work to mitigate the impact of rail traffic to not only maintain the economic viability of our city but to minimize the impact on traffic flow and ensure emergency response vehicles can reach those in need of their services as quickly as possible. Statement

As we begin another election season, we often hear about the "I" when it comes to politics. In looking back on my 1st term, it is important to know that many people are involved in the process of making sure our community has its essential services. It has been a privilege to work together with others on the city council and our city administration to ensure that these services not only continue but also improve to meet the demands of a growing city. We have a lot to be thankful for in our city departments, especially in light of our increasing population. Working together through the recession, "we" have been able to navigate through the tough budgets that have affected our city. As a community "we" will soon see the completion of the downtown floodwall which will greatly enhance our economic vitality and provide greater access to our wonderful and underutilized asset, the Skagit River. "We" as a community can accomplish great things for our city and I look forward to being a part of this as "we" move our city forward. Thank you for your support! Gary

I have also been a regular attendee of our city council meetings the past two years and am aware of the many challenges facing our city, particularly our need for additional living wage jobs in the community.

I want to bring family wage jobs to our city that allow our families to stay here, keep our small town values and increase our tax base so that we can enhance the services needed to encourage new businesses to locate here. I have worked with many organizations to increase the visibility of Sedro-Woolley to the rest of the state and around the region. Community Service

I am a member of the Sedro-Woolley Rotary and a volunteer for the Sedro-Woolley Chamber where I served on the Board of Directors for 8 years.

Statement

I am again running for the Ward 6 position for Sedro-Woolley City Council.

In serving on this council for going on 14 years it has brought me to realize that things are changing in our little city, which isn't so little anymore. The city does need to grow, but with direction; for both industrial and residential construction. Impact fees do need to be imposed to help with essential services already in place but at a cost to make it affordable to do business here.

The council has prepared the city for growth with new infrastructure, roads, sewer plant expansion and lines, a new fire station and equipment, and several acres of ground for new parks. I believe that these types of acquisitions are a vital part in Sedro-Woolley's development and future success. With monitored spending of tax dollars we can help our community survive and grow. I would be honored to continue to be your council representative and would appreciate your vote.

Statement

My name is Thomas Swett. I was born and raised in Skagit County. I have lived in Sedro-Woolley for over 13 years. I'm a small business man and I have first-hand knowledge on many of the policies of the city that keep business from coming to our city. New business creates new sales tax to operate our city. New business creates new jobs which creates people with money they can spend in our city. Sedro-Woolley needs to foster new business to survive. If it doesn't, the hand writing is already on the wall.

If you check the budget in recent years, Sedro-Woolley has used it's reserves (savings account) to have enough money to pay the bills. That should be a red flag to every citizen that we have problems in our city. In 2012 the city council raised the utilities tax and the sale tax. Raising taxes will not solve our problem and in fact can make it worse.

I assure you that I will listen to the citizens and be the best voice for you that I can. I promise a fair approach to building a brighter future. It's time for a change. It's time to build a future.

Statement

As a committed parent of four children it has been my pleasure and privilege to volunteer and serve in many capacities within our district. It is deeply important to me to support and contribute to the education of students in Anacortes.

I am proud to be part of a school board that puts students first in each and every conversation and decision that we make. Our community and our district have wonderful well-deserved reputations. Within the district's goals and strategic plan we are constantly striving to raise the bar and to encourage students to achieve higher standards. Working to improve the educational opportunities for each and every student at every level is a continued focus.

Important areas that I hope to support are enhancing technology to benefit students, updating facilities, and S.T.E.M. I will continue to embrace the priorities of areas like quality instruction, kindergarten readiness, preparing students for critical transitions, and ensuring students graduate on time and well prepared for a successful future.

I would like to support and strengthen the continuing efforts to build positive relationships and meaningful communication with our families and wonderful community. These relationships are critical to the future success of our district and students.

Statement

The belief of “students first” has been a strong mission that our district has relentlessly portrayed and I plan to continue that strong message. As a parent participant in many different programs in the school district, I helped promote and encourage an environment that strived to provide what was best for the students. I believe students are happiest when they are challenged, when their environment and people in their lives are respectful of who they are and in their success. Accomplished school districts like Anacortes work to create an environment that students, staff, parents and communities can believe and trust that the district has everyone’s best interest in mind. I will work hard to reinforce that trust. I plan to continue to see that the focus of education centers on high student achievement that remains relevant to today’s society, that leadership remains happy and strong and that the goals of the school district continue to take into account the importance of cost-effective education in a learning environment that promotes successful educational achievements. As a parent of three AHS graduates and community member for 20 years, I would be honored to represent this community on the Anacortes School Board.

I am running for the Island Hospital Board of Commissioners because I am concerned with the future of healthcare services in the communities served by our hospital, family care clinics, and specialty clinics. I am committed to working with the other commissioners, administration, physicians, staff and community to continue to provide high quality healthcare services to our citizens.

The business climate for health-care services in our country is largely defined by economic and demographic factors that will continue to bring increased financial pressure on health systems and providers. As changes are needed to reduce costs, gain efficiency, and improve processes, I will explore options and make decisions based on the unique needs of our communities. My broad financial education and professional experience in business and medical organizations will guide me in finding solutions to lessen the impact from the challenges facing the healthcare industry and our communities.

I would be honored to serve as one of your Island Hospital Commissioners alongside the other highly dedicated, passionate professionals.

Statement

A strong, vibrant hospital and healthcare system are critical to the well being of our community. We are very fortunate that Island Hospital is successful and offers a diverse range of services that are often not found in communities our size.

Island Hospital is at a critical juncture. Factors such as the advent of the Affordable Healthcare Act, potential changes to Medicare, and the aging demographics of our population are all going to have major impacts. However, the most important issue facing us at the moment is the proposed affiliation with a larger healthcare system. The affiliation is a very complex consideration. Many people have focused on the single issue of Catholic systems vs. secular systems. I feel strongly that we need to choose a partner that will be the best fit and that will allow us to continue to provide the full range of services, both reproductive and end-of-life, that are now available to those served by Island Hospital.

I would welcome the opportunity to be a part of the team that will work to meet the challenges of the coming years so that we can continue to succeed at providing excellent healthcare to everyone in our community.

Statement

Since I was elected Port Commissioner, we have worked very hard to make significant and important changes for the citizens of the District. The Port and the City were deadlocked in law suits, it was plagued with internal staff problems, and it was fighting with the Department of Ecology. Today Port/City relations are the best in a decade. Port staff has been changed from the top down with quality professionals. Our new legal team has partnered with Ecology in several cleanup projects. Funding these multimillion dollar cleanups came from liable parties and Ecology, not Port taxes.

Other achievements during my service include the cleanup and reconfiguration of Seafarers' Memorial Park, its building, and its small craft pier. Docks at the marina have been replaced and are open to the public. Marina uplands, once an environmental disaster, now include an esplanade and Anthony's Restaurant. Shipping is significantly increased. Pier2 is now sealed – channeling previous runoff to the City treatment plant. Dakota Creek has been cleaned up and expanded $\frac{3}{4}$ acres.

Future projects include additional environmental cleanup and public enhancements to facilities emphasizing joint Port/City cooperation, strategic planning and fiscal responsibility while respecting the unique quality of life of this community.

This last term has been a busy one with the completion of the $31 million cleanup at Sea Farers Park, the replacement of E and F docks plus the addition of Anthony's restaurant and a new fuel dock in the marina. The number of concerts in the park has increased from four to seven in the summer. At the same time the Port reduced property taxes.

There is much to be done in the next four years. Pier One needs to be dredged due to ships touching the bottom. "A" dock needs to be replaced along with the ramps to service the whale watch and fishing boats. The north end of the marina is to be developed with play ground equipment, dog park, RV park and a multipurpose event building and other facilities. This will be done by earnings from operations and will not require additional taxes. I ask your support to get these tasks done.

Statement

The Port of Skagit was created by the voters in 1964 in order to help local economic growth by improving and operating the community's transportation infrastructure. Today, the Port manages the Skagit Regional Airport, the La Conner Marina, and the Bayview Business Park adjacent to the airport. Some 80 businesses with over 1000 employees now make their home on these publicly owned properties.

For the past two terms I have held the office of District 1 Port Commissioner, during which time some very real improvements have been made both to the Port's properties and to how it conducts business. Examples include a $14 million improvement to the airports runway, additional guest moorage space at the marina, (both nearly all paid for by State and Federal grants), and expansion of the Port's extensive Nature Trail system. The Port's employees have also been formally trained to treat the public as valued private customers...and they are doing well at this.

I am running for re-election with the intent of continuing to use all of these resources to attract additional environmentally sound industries to our community, the end goal being the creation of new family wage jobs for our young people.

It is time for this community and the Fire Department to come together. No more "us vs. them" attitude from both organizations. There has been mistrust, anger and hurt feelings for too many years, not just the last 4 or 5. It has been going on for as long as I remember.

Being a member of both the LCFD Aux and the LCIA I hear the concerns from both sides even within both organizations that don't agree with the attitudes of their fellow members toward the others but don't know how to stop it except to quit being a member of their respected organizations.

If I am elected I will strive to bring all this to an end and bring this community back together. I know it will be difficult because there is anger and hurt on both sides but for the community, we should try.

Neighbors Helping Neighbors! That's what Mt. Erie Fire District #11 is all about. As a former volunteer firefighter/first responder I received necessary and advanced training needed to assist my neighbors and visitors to our community.

As your commissioner for the past five years I've worked to ensure that our current volunteers are well qualified, professionally trained and properly equipped. A roster of well trained, well equipped firefighters/EMTs, combined with properly maintained fire/medical apparatus is what's required to ensure the safety of our families and friends.

I continue to educate myself and explore available training collaboration and mutual aid cooperation models to improve FD-11's efficiency. Each decision I've made has been with judicious fiscal responsibility of our taxes. Money spent to support the district's fire/medical apparatus and equipment as well as the volunteer's personal protection equipment and training have been made with careful consideration.

While remaining within our budgeted guidelines, I'm mindful to balance each decision between the wants and needs of the district. My priority is to provide the district with the best available medical assistance and property protection resources affordable.

I thank the Mt. Erie Firefighter's Association for their endorsement and ask you for your vote.

I am an Anacortes native who has grown up in this community and am now experiencing the pleasure of raising my own family here. The last 7 years I have been able to work for a diverse collection of area fire departments from urban cities to rural districts, full-time, part-time, and volunteer. Serving my community is at the heart of what I do professionally and personally.

As a volunteer department, District 11 is accustomed to doing more with less. Working within the constraints of limited funds and relying on the dedication and service of community member volunteers can be challenging. Maintaining strong partnerships and working relationships with our surrounding departments and emergency responders is crucial to our operation when speed and quality response are vitally important.

It is always my goal to provide the highest level of service at all times while being efficient, responsible, and caring to the needs of individuals as well as to the community as a whole. I believe my range of experiences and knowledge in the field of fire suppression and emergency medical response have provided me with unique skills to help our own District 11 to continually strive for these same goals.

Statement

Every business, large or small, has one particular responsibility. That responsibility is to show a positive return on the investment of its shareholders. You, the tax payers and residents of Fire District 13 are those shareholders. Utilize my knowledge of business and my leadership abilities to provide you with that positive return.

It is time to incorporate Skagit County Fire District #13 and the Town of La Conner Fire Department as a single entity. Both parties already enjoy joint tenancy of the Fire Station on Chilberg Road and work together through a cumbersome and sometimes ineffective mutual aid agreement. My plan will combine personnel and pool resources to maximize efficiency and to end the decades old redundant waste of public funds.

All citizens of Fire District #13 rely on a well managed volunteer fire district. We need to focus on the future and ensure that it will be operated in a fiscally responsible manner. These simple steps will go a long way to protect our District's most valued assets, our volunteers, and create a work environment that enables them to operate with confidence and security.

I would be honored to earn your vote! Thank you!

Statement

I believe we all owe a debt of gratitude to the people in our community who volunteer their time and energy in service to us. There's the mom who gives her time in the elementary school classroom, the folks who serve the least of us in shelters and soup kitchens, dads who coach t-ball and soccer, teenagers sandbagging a threatening Skagit River, and countless others giving through countless acts.

Of all these though, I hold in highest regard our volunteer firefighters. They give hundreds of hours in training and preparation before even donning the gear to enter a burning home. They are alerted in the middle of the night to answer a neighbor's call for help, and they know if they don't respond, there may be no one else to go.

Their duty is dangerous. Remember the West Texas fertilizer explosion? Five volunteer firefighters died that night, serving their community. I don't know what motivates volunteers to serve, but we must give them all the support we can muster. So when some people I respect asked if I would be willing to serve as Fire Commissioner, I knew it was my chance to serve the people who selflessly serve me.

Measure Statement: Skagit County Fire Protection District No. 15

Official Ballot Title:

Skagit County Fire Protection District No. 15

Proposition 1

The Board of Fire Commissioners of Fire Protection District No. 15, Skagit County, Washington adopted Resolution No. 195 authorizing an increase in their regular property tax levy. This proposition would authorize the District to increase its regular property tax levy from the current $0.479 per $1,000 of assessed value to $1.00 per $1,000 of assessed value for the 2014 tax collection year, and maintain this rate, subject to any otherwise applicable rate limitations, for the maintenance and operations of the District. Should this proposition be approved?

YES [] NO []

Explanatory statement

Fire Protection District 15, Skagit County Washington is seeking voter approval for a levy lid lift. This levy is the primary source of funding for emergency services provided by the Fire District. State limitations on funding increases do not allow the Fire District to keep up with operational costs. The proposed lid lift would result in an incremental increase in the regular property tax rate of $0.479 per $1,000 of assessed value over 2013 levy rate, for a total levy rate of $1.00 per $1,000 of assessed value for collection in 2014. The dollar amount of the 2014 levy would be used to calculate the levy for future levies. The increased amounts collected would be used to support the District's fire, life and safety services and to acquire necessary equipment and apparatus.

Argument for

The Skagit County Fire District 15 (Lake McMurray Fire) collects the least amount of money by about $10,000 of any other Skagit County Fire District. It has been this way for years. For the past few years the bills have been more than the income. The reserve fund is mostly depleted. The Ladies Auxiliary and the Fire Fighters Association continue to assist paying for needed items. Currently there are two major issues that need to be addressed. The breathing apparatuses need to be replaced (about $50,000) and repairs need to be made on the fire hall.

On a $200,000 home the tax that would be collect by the fire department will be $200. That will be an increase of about $105 per year or $8.75 per month. When you think of the care that the Fire Department provides in fire, life and safety services, $105 is a small amount for the security they provide. We wish it were not the case, but it is time to raise taxes so our Fire Department can continue to do their outstanding work

This statement for Proposition 1 is being submitted by Citizens for Fire District 15. This committee is co-chaired by Hazel Sitner, Glen Kensmoe, and Jane McManus.

Initiative Measure 517

AN ACT Relating to establishing protections for citizens exercising their First Amendment rights by participating in the initiative and referendum process; amending RCW 9A.84.030 and 29A.72.030; adding new sections to chapter 29A.72 RCW; creating new sections; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

POLICIES AND PURPOSES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The people want to ensure their right to participate in the initiative and referendum process is protected. Citizens' participation in the legislative process by initiative and referendum has been subjected to hostility, interference and threats of interference and retaliation by private and governmental actions. As promised by the Washington state Constitution: "The first power reserved by the people is the initiative."

Article I, section 4 of the Washington state Constitution and the First Amendment to the United States Constitution recognizes the right of the people to petition the government. This act is intended to protect the rights provided by these constitutional provisions. This measure would establish protections for citizens exercising their First Amendment rights by participating in the initiative and referendum process. The people find that citizens' right to participate in the initiative and referendum process needs to be protected.

ESTABLISHING PROTECTIONS FOR CITIZENS EXERCISING THEIR FIRST AMENDMENT RIGHTS BY PARTICIPATING IN THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM PROCESS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 29A.72 RCW to read as follows:

This section establishes protections for signature gathering for any state or local initiative or referendum. Interfering with signature gathering shall be illegal. Any person who is gathering signatures for an officially filed and processed initiative or referendum shall not have his or her right to petition deterred or infringed upon. Any person who is trying to sign a petition for an officially filed and processed initiative or referendum shall not have his or her right to sign a petition deterred or infringed upon. Any person who interferes with any person gathering signatures or interferes with any person trying to sign a petition or retaliates against or stalks any person who signed a petition or retaliates against or stalks any person who gathered signatures for a petition shall be subject to the anti-harassment procedures in chapter 10.14 RCW and civil penalties and shall be guilty of disorderly conduct under RCW 9A.84.030. For purposes of this section, "interfering with" includes, but is not limited to, pushing, shoving, touching, spitting, throwing objects, yelling, screaming, or being verbally abusive, or other tumultuous conduct, blocking or intimidating, or maintaining an intimidating presence within twenty-five feet of any person gathering signatures and any person trying to sign a petition. As the courts have consistently ruled, the signing of a petition and the collection of voter signatures is core political speech, which is deserving of the highest levels of protection. Signature gathering and petition signing for an officially filed and processed initiative or referendum shall be a legally protected activity on public sidewalks and walkways and all sidewalks and walkways that carry pedestrian traffic, including those in front of the entrances and exits of any store, and inside or outside public buildings such as public sports stadiums, convention/exhibition centers, and public fairs. Law enforcement must vigorously protect the rights of the people who want to sign initiative and referendum petitions, and the people who collect voter signatures on initiative and referendum petitions, to ensure they are not inhibited or restricted in any way.

The people find that they must be able to safely, freely, and peacefully petition their government for change without fear of intimidation or retaliation. Without the right to petition and the right to sign petitions, there is no functioning initiative and referendum process. Maximum legal protections must be afforded persons gathering signatures and persons trying to sign petitions to protect them from interference, harassment, threat, or retaliation. Maximum penalties must be imposed against persons who interfere with the constitutionally protected right to initiative and referendum.

Sec. 3. RCW 9A.84.030 and 2007 c 2 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of disorderly conduct if the person:

(a) Uses abusive language and thereby intentionally creates a risk of assault;

(b) Intentionally disrupts any lawful assembly or meeting of persons without lawful authority;

(c) Intentionally obstructs vehicular or pedestrian traffic without lawful authority; ((or))

(d)(i) Intentionally engages in fighting or in tumultuous conduct or makes unreasonable noise, within five hundred feet of:

(A) The location where a funeral or burial is being performed;

(B) A funeral home during the viewing of a deceased person;

(C) A funeral procession, if the person described in this subsection (1)(d) knows that the funeral procession is taking place; or

(D) A building in which a funeral or memorial service is being conducted; and

(ii) Knows that the activity adversely affects the funeral, burial, viewing, funeral procession, or memorial service; or

(e) Interferes with or retaliates against a person collecting signatures or signing any initiative or referendum petition by pushing, shoving, touching, spitting, throwing objects, yelling, screaming, being verbally abusive, blocking or intimidating, or other tumultuous conduct or maintaining an intimidating presence within twenty-five feet of any person gathering signatures or any person trying to sign any initiative or referendum petition.

(2) Disorderly conduct is a misdemeanor.

GUARANTEEING THE PEOPLE'S RIGHT TO VOTE ON INITIATIVES THAT SUBMIT SUFFICIENT VALID VOTER SIGNATURES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 29A.72 RCW to read as follows:

Any state or local initiative for which sufficient valid voter signatures are submitted within the time period required must be submitted to a vote of the people at the next election date. The people are guaranteed the right to vote on any initiative that obtains the required number of valid voter signatures in the required time frame. Government officials, both elected and unelected, must facilitate and cannot obstruct the processing of any initiative

How do I read measure text?

Any language in double parentheses with a line through it is existing state law and will be taken out of the law if this measure is approved by voters.

Any underlined language does not appear in current state law but will be added to the law if this measure is approved by voters.

sample of text to be added petition and must facilitate and cannot obstruct the public vote of any initiative. For local initiatives, government officials must, in all circumstances, strictly comply with the requirements of this act for any initiative regardless of its subject matter. The term "local legislative authority" must be construed to include the people via local initiative regardless of the subject matter of the ballot measure. Citizens have just as much right to decide issues with local initiatives as governments do. This section may not be construed in any way to impede the right to legal review of the sufficiency of valid voter signatures or post-election legal review; however, under no circumstances may an initiative be prohibited from submission to the people for a vote if sufficient valid voter signatures are submitted.

PROTECTING CITIZENS' RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE BY EXTENDING THE TIME FOR SIGNATURE GATHERING ON INITIATIVES, DETERMINING INTERFERENCE IN THE SIGNATURE GATHERING PROCESS

Sec. 5. RCW 29A.72.030 and 2003 c 111 s 1804 are each amended to read as follows:

Initiative measures proposed to be submitted to the people must be filed with the secretary of state within ~~(ten)~~ sixteen months prior to the election at which they are to be submitted (this act's amended change from ten months to sixteen months for filing an initiative provides up to six more months for initiative signature gathering), and the signature petitions must be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the next general statewide election.

Initiative measures proposed to be submitted to the legislature must be filed with the secretary of state within ~~(ten)~~ sixteen months prior to the next regular session of the legislature at which they are to be submitted (this act's amended change from ten months to sixteen months for filing an initiative provides up to six more months for initiative signature gathering), and the signature petitions must be filed with the secretary of state not less than ten days before such regular session of the legislature.

A referendum measure petition ordering that any act or part of an act passed by the legislature be referred to the people must be filed with the secretary of state within ninety days after the final adjournment of the legislative session at which the act was passed. It may be submitted at the next general statewide election or at a special election ordered by the legislature.

A proposed initiative or referendum measure may be filed no earlier than the opening of the secretary of state's office for business pursuant to RCW 42.04.060 on the first day filings are permitted, and any initiative or referendum petition must be filed not later than the close of business on the last business day in the specified period for submission of signatures. If a filing deadline falls on a Saturday, the office of the secretary of state must be open for the transaction of business under this section from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on that Saturday.

Opponents of ballot measures sometimes try to interfere with the signature gathering process in the final months of the campaign, taking advantage of the limited time for the collection of signatures. The people find that allowing more time for citizens to participate in the signature gathering process will deter such despicable tactics.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The provisions of this act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the intent, policies, and purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act shall be self-executing. If any part or parts of this act are found to be in conflict with federal law, the United States Constitution, or the Washington state Constitution, the act shall be implemented to the maximum extent that federal law, the United States Constitution, and the Washington state Constitution permit. Any provision held invalid shall be severable from the remaining portions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is called "Protect the Initiative Act."

Complete Text Initiative Measure 522

AN ACT Relating to disclosure of foods produced through genetic engineering; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The people find that:

(1) Polls consistently show that the vast majority of the public, typically more than ninety percent, wants to know if their food was produced using genetic engineering. Without disclosure, consumers of genetically engineered food unknowingly may violate their own dietary and religious restrictions.

(2) Currently, there is no federal or state law that requires food producers to identify whether foods were produced using genetic engineering. At the same time, the United States food and drug administration does not require safety studies of such foods. Unless these foods contain a known allergen, the United States food and drug administration does not require the developers of genetically engineered crops to consult with the agency. Consultations with the United States food and drug administration are entirely voluntary and the developers themselves may decide what information they may wish to provide.

(3) Mandatory identification of foods produced with genetic engineering can provide a critical method for tracking the potential health effects of consuming foods produced through genetic engineering.

(4) Consumers have the right to know whether the foods they purchase were produced with genetic engineering. The genetic engineering of plants and animals is an imprecise process and often causes unintended consequences. Mixing plant, animal, bacterial, and viral genes in combinations that cannot occur in nature produces results that are not always predictable or controllable, and can lead to adverse health or environmental consequences.

(5) United States government scientists have stated that the artificial insertion of genetic material into plants, a technique unique to genetic engineering, can cause a variety of significant problems with plant foods. Such genetic engineering can increase the levels of known toxicants in foods and introduce new toxicants and health concerns.

(6) Forty-nine countries, including Japan, South Korea, China, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Russia, the European Union member states, and other key United States trading partners, have laws mandating disclosure of genetically engineered foods on food labels. Many countries have restrictions or bans against foods produced with genetic engineering.

(7) No international agreements prohibit the mandatory identification of foods produced through genetic engineering.

(8) Numerous foreign markets with restrictions against foods produced through genetic engineering have restricted imports of United States crops due to concerns about genetic engineering. Some foreign markets are choosing to purchase agricultural products from countries other than the United States because genetically engineered crops are not identified in the United States, making it impossible for buyers to distinguish what does or does not meet their national labeling laws or restrictions, rendering United States' products less desirable. Trade losses are estimated at billions of dollars. Mandatory identification of foods produced with genetic engineering can be a critical method for preserving the economic value of exports to markets with restrictions and prohibitions against genetic engineering.

(9) Industry data shows foods identified as produced without genetic engineering, including conventional foods identified this way, are the fastest growing label claim. Consumers have a right to an informed choice at the point of sale.

(10) Farmers from a wheat growing region of the state have gathered more than two thousand six hundred signatures on a petition demanding mandatory disclosure for crops produced with genetic engineering. The farmers are concerned they will lose their wheat export markets if genetically engineered wheat is approved.

(11) Agriculture is Washington's number one employer and wheat is Washington's number two export crop, second only to goods and services produced by the Boeing company, and ahead of Microsoft, which ranks third.

(12) Preserving the identity, quality, and reliability of Washington's agricultural products is of prime importance to our state's fiscal health.

(13) The cultivation of genetically engineered crops can cause serious impacts to the environment. For example, most genetically engineered crops are designed to withstand weed killing herbicides. As a result, genetically engineered crops have caused hundreds of millions of pounds of additional herbicides to be applied to the nation's farmland. The massive increase in use of these herbicides has caused emergence of herbicide-resistant weeds, which have infested farm fields and roadsides, complicating weed control for farmers and encouraging use of increasingly toxic and more dangerous herbicides. These toxic herbicides damage the vitality of the soil, contaminate drinking water supplies, and pose health risks to consumers and farmworkers. The public should have the choice to avoid purchasing foods produced in ways that can lead to such harm.

(14) United States department of agriculture data shows Washington state ranks second in the nation for organic farm-gate sales at two hundred eighty-one million dollars per year. While total United States food sales are virtually stagnant, growing less than one percent overall, the organic food industry grew at 7.7 percent according to 2010 data. Sales of organic fruits and vegetables increased eleven and eight-tenths percent, accounting for approximately twelve percent of all United States' fruit and vegetable sales. Organic dairy, another key industry in Washington state, grew at nine percent and comprises nearly six percent of the total United States dairy market. Organic farmers are prohibited from using genetically engineered seeds or livestock feed.

(15) Trade industry data shows the organic industry is creating jobs at four times the national rate.

(16) Published data shows organic farming is more profitable and economically secure than conventional farming over the long term. This important element of Washington's economy must be protected.

(17) Conventional farmers have a right to choose what crops they grow and many conventional farmers want to grow traditional crops developed without genetic engineering. Identifying seeds and seed stock produced with genetic engineering would protect farmers' rights to know what they are purchasing and protect their right to choose what they grow.

(18) The purpose of this chapter is to ensure people are fully informed about whether the food they purchase and eat was produced through genetic engineering so they may choose for themselves whether to purchase and eat such food. Identifying foods produced through genetic engineering also will help protect our state's export market.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Department" means the department of health.

(2) "Enzyme" means a protein that catalyzes chemical reactions of other substances without itself being destroyed or altered upon completion of the reactions.

(3)(a) "Genetically engineered" means any food that is produced from an organism or organisms in which the genetic material has been changed through the application of: (i) In vitro nucleic acid techniques including recombinant deoxyribonucleic acid techniques and the direct injection of nucleic acid into cells or organelles. In vitro nucleic acid techniques include, but are not limited to, recombinant deoxyribonucleic acid or ribonucleic acid techniques that use vector systems and techniques involving the direct introduction into the organisms of hereditary material prepared outside the organisms, such as micro-injection, macro-injection, chemoporation, electroporation, micro-encapsulation, and liposome fusion; or (ii) fusion of cells, including protoplast fusion, or hybridization techniques that overcome natural physiological, reproductive, or recombination barriers, where the donor cells or protoplasts do not fall within the same taxonomic family, in a way that does not occur by natural multiplication or natural recombination.

(b) For the purposes of (a) of this subsection, "organism" means any biological entity capable of replication, reproduction, or transferring genetic material.

(4) "Processed food" means any food other than a raw agricultural commodity and includes any food produced from a raw agricultural commodity that has been subject to processing such as canning, smoking, pressing, cooking, freezing, dehydration, fermentation, or milling.

(5) "Processing aid" means:

(a) A substance that is added to a food during the processing of the food but is removed in some manner from the food before it is packaged in its finished form;

(b) A substance that is added to a food during processing, is converted into constituents normally present in the food, and does not significantly increase the amount of the constituents naturally found in the food; or

(c) A substance that is added to a food for its technical or functional effects in the processing but is present in the finished food at insignificant levels and does not have any technical or functional effect in that finished food.

(6) "Raw agricultural commodity" has the same meaning as defined by 21 U.S.C. Sec. 321.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Beginning July 1, 2015, any food offered for retail sale in Washington is misbranded if it is, or may have been, entirely or partly produced with genetic engineering and that fact is not disclosed as follows:

(a) In the case of a raw agricultural commodity, on the package offered for retail sale, with the words "genetically engineered" stated clearly and conspicuously on the front of the package of such a commodity, or in the case of such a commodity that is not separately packaged or labeled, on a label appearing on the retail store shelf or bin where such a commodity is displayed for sale;

(b) In the case of any processed food, on the front of the package of such food produced by a manufacturer, with the words “partially produced with genetic engineering” or “may be partially produced with genetic engineering” stated clearly and conspicuously; and

(c) In the case of any seed or seed stock, on the seed or seed stock container, sales receipt or any other reference to identification, ownership, or possession, with the words “genetically engineered” or “produced with genetic engineering” stated clearly and conspicuously.

(2) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section do not require either the listing or identification of any ingredient or ingredients that were genetically engineered, nor that the term “genetically engineered” be placed immediately preceding any common name or primary product descriptor of a food.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to any of the following:

(a) Food consisting entirely of, or derived entirely from, an animal that has not itself been genetically engineered, regardless of whether the animal has been fed or injected with any food produced with genetic engineering or any drug that has been produced through means of genetic engineering;

(b) A raw agricultural commodity or food that has been grown, raised, produced, or derived without the knowing and intentional use of genetically engineered seed or food. To be included within the exclusion under this subsection, the person supplying a raw agricultural commodity or food must provide a sworn statement that the raw agricultural commodity or food: (i) Has not been knowingly or intentionally produced through genetic engineering; and (ii) has been segregated from, and has not been knowingly or intentionally commingled with, foods that may have been genetically engineered at any time. In providing such a sworn statement, a person may rely on a sworn statement from his or her own supplier that contains such an affirmation;

(c) Any processed food that would be subject to this section solely because one or more processing aids or enzymes were produced or derived with genetic engineering;

(d) Any alcoholic beverage that is subject to regulation under Title 66 RCW;

(e) Until July 1, 2019, any processed food that would be subject to this section solely because it includes one or more materials produced by genetic engineering, provided that the engineered materials in the aggregate do not account for more than nine-tenths of one percent of the total weight of the processed food;

(f) Food that an independent organization has determined has not been knowingly and intentionally produced from or commingled with genetically engineered seed or genetically engineered food, provided that such a determination has been made pursuant to a sampling and testing procedure approved for this purpose in rules adopted by the department. These rules may not approve a sampling and testing procedure unless it is consistent with sampling and testing principles recommended by internationally recognized standards organizations, such as the international standards association and the grain and feed trade association. No testing procedure may be approved by the department unless: (i) It does not rely on testing processed foods in which no deoxyribonucleic acid is detectable; and (ii) it is consistent with the most recent “Guidelines on Performance Criteria and Validation of Methods for Detection, Identification and Quantification of Specific DNA Sequences and Specific Proteins in Foods” (CAC/GL 74, 2010) published by the codex alimentarius commission;

(g) Food that has been lawfully certified to be labeled, marketed, and offered for sale as “organic” pursuant to the federal organic foods production act of 1990 and the regulations

promulgated pursuant thereto by the United States department of agriculture;

(h) Food that is not packaged for retail sale and that either: (i) Is a processed food prepared and intended for immediate human consumption; or (ii) is served, sold, or otherwise provided in any restaurant or other food service establishment that is engaged primarily in the sale of food prepared and intended for immediate human consumption; or

(i) Medical food.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department may adopt rules necessary to implement this chapter, provided that the department is not authorized to create any exemptions beyond those provided in section 3(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department, acting through the attorney general, may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person violating this chapter.

(2) The department may assess a civil penalty against any person violating this chapter in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars per day. Each day of violation is considered a separate violation.

(3) An action to enjoin a violation of this chapter may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction by any person in the public interest if the action is commenced more than sixty days after the person has given notice of the alleged violation to the department, the attorney general, and to the alleged violator.

(4) The court may award to a prevailing plaintiff reasonable costs and attorneys’ fees incurred in investigating and prosecuting an action to enforce this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
