SERVICE OVERVIEW

ES&S[®] Training Services: LearningWorks[™]

Total Training Solution for Conducting Better Elections

Solid training is the cornerstone of a smooth, secure election. Under the umbrella of LearningWorks, ES&S offers comprehensive training programs, created and led by experienced professionals, for everyone who interacts with your voting system. Our programs are designed to make all who participate in your election feel comfortable and confident using ES&S voting systems and software products.

Key Features and Benefits

Hands-On

The ES&S training approach places a premium on “real-world” election experience. We incorporate a high degree of hands-on instruction to simulate the election process as closely as possible.

Comprehensive

The ES&S training approach anticipates the wide range of skills that must be developed to carry out a trouble-free election.

Customized

The ES&S training approach is flexible to accommodate the specific laws, regulations, and procedures in your jurisdiction.

Relevant

The ES&S training approach involves courses that are tailored to specific audiences, increasing the relevancy of every minute any election worker spends in the classroom.

WHY ES&S?

ES&S® Training Services: LearningWorks™ Offerings

ES&S Instructor-Led Training

Operations Training

When installing and implementing new voting systems, this training is a “must have” for effectively understanding and properly using new equipment and software. Operations training isn’t limited to first-time implementations — use it each year to maintain a well-prepared team when there are system upgrades and election staff turnover.

Train-the-Trainer Courses

Aimed at the election administration who will train your poll workers. Participants in the Train-the-Trainer course will feel comfortable and confident working with ES&S voting systems.

Instructor-Led Poll Worker Training

You know from experience that poll worker competency improves voter experience at the polls and reduces the number of trouble calls to your already-busy office on Election Day.

Virtual Classroom

Conducted in real-time with an ES&S training expert, you’ll get the interaction of face-to-face training from the convenience of your computer classroom.

Individual-Driven Training

Computer-Based Training

ES&S Computer-Based Training, or CBT, is an interactive learning environment accessible through any computer, via a secure, password-protected system. Participants have access to a wealth of essential election information anytime, anywhere.

Training DVDs

With a focus on pre-election and Election Day operations, these ES&S-produced videos will walk election staff through detailed checklists to make sure your standard election procedures are as turnkey as possible.

Additional Tools

In-Precinct Training

Through the Unity® and ElectionWare™ automated election suites, poll workers and others involved in conducting an election can access key information about your voting system... and, get answers to commonly asked questions.

Voter Education and Outreach

ES&S has full array of voter education and outreach available. Our materials can also be customized, if needed.

Training Plans and Consultations

We can work with you to develop the customized training plan exactly formulated to meet your specific needs and goals. We know what works, and with your objectives in mind, we’ll deliver the plan that’s right for you — no more, no less. Just contact your account manager.

Technical Communication

Regularly updated as products are upgraded and enhanced, these comprehensive guides are an easy-to-use critical resource for anyone involved in conducting an election using an ES&S voting system.
