Voter Registration Forms

Action item: To help us re-print voter registration forms, please send vrsupport the number of forms you have on hand and a rough estimate of how many additional forms you will need through the 2014 election cycle. Response required by May 1.

April Election

If you experience problems uploading or displaying results, see Election Night Help for the phone number. Remember, it takes about 10 minutes for the uploaded numbers to display on the public page.

College Civics

College visits

Kim Wyman will visit schools for College Civics on May 6-8. Auditors are invited to attend and will be contacted as event details are confirmed.

Micro-grant winners

This year the College Civics program invited students to submit proposals to encourage greater civic engagement and voter participation on campus. Central Washington University, Pacific Lutheran University, Wenatchee Valley College at Omak and Whatcom Community College were awarded micro-grants to put their proposals into action.

State candidate filing reference card

Please review the quick reference card for candidate filing. This two-page sheet addresses state candidate filing issues such as important dates, how and where a candidate files, and where to find more information.
