What's Cropping Up? | Online Version

If you were unable to attend the Voter Intent training at the Elections Conference, you can register online to participate in our 2-hour interactive web conference.

- Wednesday, July 2nd at 10:00 a.m.
- Learn about revised WACs and new recommendations from the Voter Intent Committee.
- Once registered, you'll receive a calendar notice from C&T with a link to join the conference.
- Be prepared to use the chat function to share your perspective!

Certification Hours

Start your application today using our new online certification tool.

- The tool automatically saves and calculates hours up to the number needed for certification. You'll need to track any "surplus" trainings on your own; up to 6 hours maximum for renewal applications.
- If you attended every session at the Elections Conference, you earned 15 hours of elections-specific training.
- Couldn't attend every session? You can manually enter your conference hours using the link, "Add a training event/hours not listed."
- Conference user group meeting hours must also be entered manually.
