

Online registration on the rise

New voter registrations in Washington State by method: Submitted online, on paper or through the Department of Licensing.

Online	Registrations submitted through the online voter registration service, found here.
Motor Voter	Registrations submitted by the Department of Licensing on behalf of a customer electing to register to vote (NVRA).
Paper	Registrations submitted through any of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A state agency designated to provide voter registration services in compliance with the National Voter Registration Act.• The Federal Post Card Application or federal voter registration form.• The Washington State mail-in voter registration form.• Over-the-counter registration completed at county election departments. Hard copy registration form submitted by 3rd party organizations conducting voter registration drives and registrations completed during the petition signature gathering process

