

Press Release

Three-day Special filing Period

May 26-28

Washington State law requires that an additional three-day filing period be held for offices receiving no candidate filings during the regular filing period. The regular filing period closed on Friday May 15, 2015.

The positions listed below received no candidate filings and are open for filing during this special filing period. Anyone meeting the qualifications of the office and wishing to file for one of the offices listed can do so.

The race will appear only on the General Election ballot regardless of the number of candidates who file. No candidate who files during a special three-day filing period may withdraw. The candidate who receives the most votes in the General Election is declared the winner.

If no candidate files for an office during the special filing period, no additional candidate filing period will be opened. The office is deemed lapsed and will not appear on the General Election ballot. The incumbent or person appointed will be up for election at the next election when such positions are voted upon.

Filing will be in the Election Center, located in the basement of the courthouse. Our office hours are 8:00 am to 4:30 pm.
