Voters' Guide committees sought for Feb. 9 Special Election

(Port Angeles, WA) – The Auditor's Office is seeking individuals to serve on committees to draft voters' guide arguments for the Feb. 9 Special Election.

Clallam's Online Voters' Guide includes a wealth of information designed to help voters better understand the voting process and measures when casting their ballots.

Each measure appearing in the guide includes the official ballot title, explanatory statement, and arguments "for" and "against" the measure.

Individuals are needed to serve on the following committees:

- Crescent School District 121, School Maintenance and Operation Levy, Committee 'Against' the measure.
- Crescent School District 121, Capital Projects Levy, Committee 'Against' the measure.
- Sequim School District 323, School Improvements General Obligation Bonds - $54,000,000, Committee 'Against' the measure.

Committee members do not have to be residents of the district in order to draft arguments. Interested parties should contact the Elections Division by 4:30 p.m., Dec. 18. Please email khugoniot@co.clallam.wa.us or call 360-417-2217 if interested.
