Voters' Guide committees sought for August 1 Primary Election

(Port Angeles, WA) – The Auditor's Office is seeking individuals to serve on committees to draft voters' guide arguments for the August 1 Primary Election.

Clallam's online guide includes a wealth of information designed to help voters better understand the voting process and measures when casting their ballots.

Each measure appearing in the guide includes the official ballot title, explanatory statement, and arguments 'for' and 'against' the measure.

Individuals are needed to serve on the following committees:

- City of Port Angeles, Sales and Use Tax For Transportation Improvements, Committee 'for' the measure and Committee 'against' the measure.

Committee members do not have to be residents of the district in order to draft arguments. Interested parties should contact the Elections Division by 4:30 p.m., May 19. Email sriggs@co.clallam.wa.us or call 360-417-2222 if interested.
